The Proscript

The Proscript is the RPI newspaper. It brings campus events and activities to the students. The editorship for the fall was under Virginia Calisch with page editors Barbara Byrne, Emily Ann Rice, Robert Hall, and Frances Stringfellow. The spring staff was headed by Barbara Byrne with Audrey Nunn, Joy Dunbaugh, Robert Hall, and Frances Stringfellow as page editors. Both groups were under the guidance of Mr. Roland B. Smith.

The Literary Club

In every large group of people there are those who desire to express themselves in a literary manner, and those who wish to know more of literature and its prominent figures. The Literary Club was organized for these people under the leadership of Anne Sullivan and the guidance of Dr. S. J. McCoy.

The Journal

To encourage the expression of imagination and opinion on all subjects, the Literary Club has sponsored The Journal. Any student in the school has an equal opportunity to see his work in the magazine. Winston Evans is the Editor-in-Chief.

Each Thursday evening in their studio the Theatre Associates have presented an outstanding one-act play. These productions have been designed and staged by upperclassmen without faculty supervision.

This year, for the first time, the Theatre Associates offered a scholarship to summer stock, awarded on the basis of acting promise. William Buckley is the recipient of the 1947 award.

Lost Battalion

The "Lost Battalion," R. P. I. veterans' club, was organized last October. Joseph Hendrick was elected president the first semester and Earl Wood the second. Mr. Eugene W. Wright is the News Advisor. The group was represented in Chicago last December to form a National Students Organization.

International Relations Club

To maintain interest in international affairs and to promote understanding among peoples of the earth are the primary principles of the International Relations Clubs the world over. The R. P. I. group sponsors speakers and discussion groups to enlighten its members.

Hockey Team

With three wins, two defeats, and one tie, R. P. I.'s Field Hockey season closed with a trip to Sweet Briar College where the Virginia Field Hockey Tournament was held. The tie with the Richmond Hockey Club, composed of Physical Education teachers, was the season's highlight. Miss Frances English coached the team, while Frances Allen captained it.

Girls' Basketball

McGuire Hospital, Presbyterian Training Seminary, Norfolk Division, the Richmond Basketball Club, William and Mary, and the Medical College fell before the R. P. I. basketball team. These seven wins against four defeats illustrate a fine team coached by Miss Florence English and captained by Gene Layne.

Swimming

Though off to a late start the Porpoise Club had a good but short season. On Tuesdays and Thursdays the members swim in the Mosque pool. Meets were scheduled with Norfolk and William and Mary.

Modern Dance Group

This group presented a Dance Pageant at Thomas Jefferson auditorium tracing dancing from its earliest beginnings to its present forms. From drums beating out the primitive rhythms and the abandoning of folk dancing to more subtle forms of ballet and of social dancing, the pageant closed with the expressive dance of the moderns.

Men's Athletic Association

The aims of the Men's A. A. are to promote sports in R. P. I. and to give dances and recreational entertainment. All teams organized are under the jurisdiction of the Council. Every man in the school is a charter member of the A. A., and this ten-man council represents them.

The Freshest Thing in Town

How to be Happy . . .

A wise editor has written that there are seven ways to be happy and that the fellow who is smart enough to keep out of debt won't need the other six. To keep out of debt, one must learn early in life to practice thrift. There is no way to practice thrift that is safer and surer than the "Natural Bridge" way.
